

Therapeutic Recreation Arts Festival

- WHY: To enrich the quality of life for people with disabilities by encouraging creativity through the arts. Through the community's resourcefulness they provide hands on activity opportunities to increase self-esteem and confidence by offering a sense of accomplishment and adventure.
- WHAT: An arts festival in honor of Therapeutic Recreation featuring hands on crafts, art, music, entertainment, and refreshments, through the work of volunteers, for children and adults with special needs, but is open to everyone.
- WHERE: Clear Channel Metroplex
10800 Colonel Glenn Rd. Little Rock, AR 72204
From I-430 North or South, take the Colonel Glenn Rd. exit (exit 4), and turn east. Clear Channel Metroplex is approximately one block from the I-430 interchange.
- WHEN: Friday May 20, 2011 10:00 am–1:00 pm
- WHO: Little Rock Parks and Recreation, Therapeutic Recreation Division, Please recognize our booth sponsors as well.
- ACTIVITIES: Hands-on art activities such as Foam projects, Climbing Wall, Beaded necklaces/bracelets, Face Painting, Dance Contest, Sand Art, and much more.
- ADMISSION: FREE!
- PUBLIC INFO: Sherrie Shinn, Therapeutic Recreation Division
Little Rock Parks and Recreation (501) 918-5359.
Or e-mail SShinn@littlerock.org

The Academy
AT RIVERDALE

